(FOR KEY SEE REVERSE)

- 1. On 28 December 1954 a convoy of 50 trucks, each carrying 30 persons, old and young, was traveling north along the North Szechuan Road in the direction of Chapei (7037/0554), northern industrial center of Shanghai. Following the trucks was another vehicle carrying soldiers, each armed with a light machine gun and a further unknown number of persons. Behind that vehicle was another that appeared to be a fire brigade car; it also was 25X1 loaded with people.
- 2. Passengers in the 50 trucks were being sent to an unknown destination for "brain-washing." Those passengers in the vehicle carrying the soldiers and those in the fire brigade car were being taken to an unknown destination to be shot.
- 3. Frequently similar convoys traveling from Shanghai have been on this 25X1 road since September 1954.
